

Why Dad? Why?

Why did you have to be that way?
When are you going to become better?
Why did you do that to us?
You made us run away from people that aren't bad at all
They could of helped us
Why Dad? Why?
So you think it's cool to be tough
It's not, it hurts others
Why not stop and start fresh?
I know you wouldn't but it's worth it
You abused us badly
I can't even say my brother's name without thinking of you
I will never love you as I used to
Unless you tell them the truth
Just because it's been ten years
Doesn't mean that we have forgotten
Remember we have brains
We use ours, don't you?
You wouldn't even if you tried
So now I'm done with you
I think you should leave
Please leave
You make me sick
Try to remember, WHY?
Bye!!
